Key features

1. Bell-shaped dose-response (d-r) for high but not low affinity ligands.
2. Peak amplitude of bell-shaped d-r is independent of affinity.
3. A single intermediate affinity ligand produces largest responses at low doses (left of the peak).
4. Different intermediate affinity ligands produce the largest response at high doses right of the peak).

